Rules & Regulations

Artists understand that by applying to the Old Art Building Artists' Market they are agreeing to these specific rules:

- Artist must be present for the duration of the show and shall represent only his/her own original work.
- Booth appearance and work must be consistent with images submitted with application.
- Commercial molds, patterns, kits, copies, etc. will not be accepted.
- Artists may not drive a vehicle on the lawn. Be prepared to carry/cart your artwork and display.
- NO dogs or pets are allowed in the artist's booth.
- Per new regulations from the Leland Fire Department please note the following:
 - Barricades will be placed at the end of the road one hour before the event begins. Cars will not be permitted on the road once barricades are erected and removed at the end of the event.
 - Designated times will be assigned for load-in to booths on lawn or road. Access outside this time frame will be limited.
 - No parking will be available on the immediately surrounding neighborhood streets. The OAB will provide an artist shuttle at the start and end of day (local parking lot 3-4 blocks away).
- We view your application as a serious commitment to participate.
- No refunds for cancelations after May 15.

I agree to all rules and regulations listed above.
