SECTION: Entertainment/Arts & Culture

HEADLINE: Holly POP! An Artful Market

The Leelanau Community Cultural Center will host Holly POP! Come to the Old Art Building, on November 23 and 24 from 10 – 4 pm, and step into a one of a kind shopping experience, featuring distinctive artisanal products and celebrate the beauty of the holiday season. Holly POP! will intrigue both children and adults. The interior and exterior of the Old Art Building will be transformed into a fresh holiday environment. Now in its second year Holly POP! will become a yearly tradition, creating lasting memories for families in Leland, Leelanau County and beyond.

Surrounding the Old Art Building will be engaging displays and stations where guests can pick up their seasonal wreaths, roping and trees, take their children to pet the reindeer and have plenty of holiday photo opportunities.

NEW THIS YEAR:

- Professional Family Photo Session
- A Wreath Workshop
- Gingerbread House Decorating
- INTERESTED? ~ sign up and register online at www.oldartbuilding.com

After sipping hot cocoa and warming up by a fire, guests can enter Holly POP! A large Christmas tree will welcome you into the unexpected scenes within. Throughout the space, clever presentations of the artisanal gifts will be reminiscent of the holiday window displays of days gone by. Take in the joy of small town hospitality! It is our goal to make Holly POP! a fresh and fun shopping environment where guests will look forward to the excitement of the first day of the holiday shopping season! What will it be THIS year? No crazy crowds, just the most unique creations and gifts for everyone on their shopping lists!
