SECTION: Entertainment/Arts & Culture

HEADLINE: Pre-Summer Party Featuring Knee Deep

The Leelanau Community Cultural Center, Knee Deep and Veterans Housing USA are getting ready for summer with a Pre Season Dance Party at the Old Art Building in Leland on May 18 from 6 – 10 pm. Tickets are $15 tickets and includes free pizza. Doors will open at 6 and music will begin at 7. Beer and wine will be available. Come celebrate with an evening of entertainment and fundraising for Veterans Housing USA and the Old Art Building. Tickets are available at MyNorthTickets.com or by calling the Old Art Building at (231) 256-2131

This special event brings a fun filled, energetic evening of entertainment to the Old Art Building stage. Knee Deep of Traverse, as seen at Rock the Shop at the Workshop Brewery, Mount Holiday Slush Cup, and the Mid-Michigan Veterans Honors Flight in Lake Ann, will play a hearty dose of classic rock with a little bit of country and funk thrown in for good measure. Break out your dance shoes as Knee Deep salutes our local veterans.. Their influences are reflected by the likes of Tom Petty, the Beatles, Stevie Ray Vaughn, the Cars, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Jimmy Buffet, Molly Hatchet, the Eagles, Johnny Cash, Neil Young, Chris Stapleton, and the Zac Brown Band, among others.

Veterans Housing USA proudly supports its veterans throughout the local community. With its roots in Traverse City, this non-profit helps to provide a stable, affordable housing option for veterans throughout Northern Michigan. Their goal is to provide affordable housing, veterans resources, and the feeling of camaraderie and support wherever needed. The goal of this evening is to help raise additional funding for this local organization to help further their cause of helping our local veterans and their housing struggles.

The Old Art Building is located at 111 S. Main St. For more information visit oldartbuilding.com or call 231-256-2131
